Peninsula Community Planning Board to Hold Election Forum

March 5, 2009 will be a great opportunity for the citizens of Point Loma to come to the Point Loma Library on Voltaire to hear comments by the candidates running for seats on the Peninsula Community Planning Board. The audience will fill out their questions to be given to monitors who will give to the Emcee who will direct the question to each candidate. If a community member wants to direct the question to a specific candidate it can be written as well and handed to monitors who will be collecting the questions. Then that specific question will be given to such specific candidate.

The panel will consist of the following who have submitted applications:

Geoff Page

Helen Kinnaird

Cal Jones

Mary Gmitruk

Chris Veum

Doug Cohen

Matt Sanicki

Steven Lombardi

Nancy Graham

The Forum meeting will start at 6:30 PM and close at 8:30PM. The residents of Point Loma will have this opportunity to become more acquainted with the candidates vying for the 5 vacant seats.

Dee Wylie, Election Chair
