Community: Support local residents and businesses prepare for the growth of the population in San Diego. SANDAG projects that population will grow by 1 million people by 2050 and the region will need to add 330,000 housing units. Included are an additional 25,000 sailors plus their families brought into the region by 2021. With the Peninsula Community already densely developed, I would like to see a smart and sustainable community plan put forth to help house and transport the next 1 million people while maintaining the open parks.

5. Share anything you wish to accomplish as a member of the board:

Work with neighboring planning boards to strive for cohesion on transportation and long range planning goals; Ensure that the community plan update is in line with goals of the City of SD Climate Action Plan
