4. Share your special interests, expertise or philosophy as it relates to the Peninsula Community:

It is our job to advocate for our community using the standards set in the Peninsula Community Plan. We can do this not only by alerting the City to neighborhood issues, but also by proposing solutions based on sound planning principles. We should demand planning staff and city budget resources to support these solutions.

5. Share anything you wish to accomplish as a member of the board:

I seek to continue contribution of my professional expertise to the aims of the PCPB and the community. I see it as my role to help form community desires into sound policy statements and action proposals which effectively alter the course of City decision-making for our benefit. I have demonstrated a skill to do these things in the past.

6. Below is a current list of the standing committees and liaisons of the PCPB. Check any in which you would be interested in joining or supporting.
