CANDIDATE FORUM
March 10, 2011
Meeting Room Pt. Loma Library

I. Parliamentary items:

Meeting was called to order by Election Subcommittee Chair H. Kinnaird at approx. 6:37 p.m. with Pledge of Allegiance

It was determined that a quorum of sitting Peninsula Community Planning Board members was present (C. Mellor, H. Kinnaird, J. Gott, D. Kaup, S. Kilbourn-McGee, S. Khalil, P. Clark, J. Shumaker; Absent: C. Veum, N. Graham, S. Brown, J. Lester, D. Cohen, R. MacCulloch, G. Page)

Candidates Present: Norman Allenby, Robert Bedore, Cynthia Conger, Allen Jones, Phyllis Littleton, Peter Nystrom, Jarvis Ross, Michael Ryan, and Paul Webb.

H. Kinnaird then greeted both the nine candidates for this year's General Election and the audience, and then provided an overview of the process for the Candidate Forum. Each candidate would be given up to 2 minutes to present to the audience an introduction, after which questions from the audience (which had been given to H. Kinnaird as moderator) would be asked of each candidate. Towards the end of the meeting, each candidate would be given an additional 2 minutes to present a wrap-up and/or reasons why voters should vote for the candidate. The last half hour would be set aside for the candidates to meet one-on-one with audience members who wished to ask more individualized questions.

For the portion of the evening where the candidates would be asked questions that were provided by the audience, as a question was asked, each candidate would be given the opportunity to respond to that same question. The first candidate to respond to a question would be rotated throughout the evening so that each candidate would be given the opportunity to be the first to respond, to be the last to respond, and otherwise, be somewhere in the middle of the group in giving their response.

During the evening, numerous questions were asked thoughtful, responsive answers were provided by the candidates.

The portion of the forum where the candidates were provided time to wrap up their presentations ended at approximately 8:30 p.m., and the one-on-one discussions ended at approximately 9:00 p.m.
